1. DOCUMENT SUMMARY & PURPOSE

The information in this document is our privacy and credit reporting policy. We simply refer to it in the remainder of the document as “Privacy Policy” or “this Policy”.

It sets out in detail how we manage the “Personal Information” and/or “Credit Information” of or about our customers, employees and other individuals we deal with in the course of our business activities.

We have defined the terms “Personal Information” in section 3 (“Personal Information” defined) and “Credit Information” in section 4 (“Credit Information” defined).

Amongst other things, our Privacy Policy contains information on:

- a) Our names (section 2);
- b) Why we collect information (section 5);
- c) When we collect information (section 7);
- d) Types of information we collect (section 3: “Personal Information” and section 4: “Credit Information”);
- e) How we collect information (section 8);
- f) Whose information we collect (section 6);
- g) How we protect your information (section 13);
- h) Sending information overseas (section 11);
- i) Requesting access to your information (section 14); and
- j) Contacting us when, for example, you wish to make a complaint or request access to your information (section 16).

1.1 Changes to Policy

We will make changes to this Privacy Policy as often as necessary without notice to ensure it remains relevant and effective in achieving its objectives and goals.

Any changes we make to this Policy will become effective immediately after we have published them and we will apply them to how we will manage the Personal Information or Credit Information of our customers in the future.

2. OUR NAMES

We are Volkswagen Financial Services Australia Pty Ltd ABN 20 097 071 460 (“VWFS”), a wholly-owned subsidiary of the global financial services organisation, VWFS AG, which is headquartered in Braunschweig, Germany.

In Australia, VWFS uses various business names including “Volkswagen Financial Services”, “Audi Financial Services”, “ŠKODA Financial Services”, “Ducati Financial Services”, “Jaguar Financial Services”, “Land Rover Financial Services”, “Bentley Financial Services Australia”, “Porsche Financial Services”, “Volvo Car Financial Services” and “CUPRA Financial Services”.

In the remainder of this Policy, we refer to VWFS or any of the above business names we use simply as “we”, “us” or “our”.

3. “PERSONAL INFORMATION” DEFINED

Personal Information means information or an opinion about an identified individual, or an individual who is reasonably identifiable whether the information or opinion is:

- a) True or not; and
- b) Recorded in a material form or not.

For the purposes of this Policy, Personal Information includes:

- a) “Identification Information” (see the definition in section 17.5 (Identification Information));
- b) Financial information: examples are your income, expenses, commitments, debts, savings and investments;
- c) Family status and dependants information: examples are whether you are married, single, in a de facto relationship and number and/or ages of children or persons you maintain;
- d) Educational and technical qualification: if you have applied for a job with us, or if you have applied for a business or contracting opportunity with us;
- e) Immigration and visa status: if you have applied for a job with us or if you have applied for a business or contracting opportunity with us;
- f) Sensitive Information (see definition in section 17.11 (Sensitive Information) below);
- g) Credit Information;
- h) Details of consents you’ve provided us relating to the sharing of your data (including in relation to the Consumer Data Right or Open Banking);
- i) Information you provide in free text fields, such as surveys, search terms or chat on our platforms; and
- j) Information about the electronic devices (computers, mobile phones or tablets) you use to access our platforms and how you use them, including:
 - Details relating to your devices, their operating systems, browsers, other applications and settings;
 - Information associated with your access to our platforms, such as information relating to the wi-fi network or mobile network used by your devices when accessing our platforms
 - General location information we get from your device’s IP address, or more specific location if you have opted in
 - Information about the way you use your devices while accessing our platforms, such as pages you visit on our platforms, click rates, scrolling or swiping activity, mouse movements, or typing speed. We may collect and process this information to generate a ‘biometric fingerprint’ that relates specifically to you, which we can use to identify unusual behaviour.

4. “CREDIT INFORMATION” DEFINED

“Credit Information” is Personal Information that includes:

- a) Consumer Credit Liability Information (see definition in section 17.1);

- d) Information about the type of consumer credit or commercial credit, and the amount of credit, sought in an application;
- e) Default Information (see definition in section 17.4);
- f) Payment Information (see definition in section 17.8);
- g) Personal Insolvency Information (see definition in section 17.9);
- h) Credit Worthiness Information (see definition in section 17.3); and
- i) Serious Credit Infringement (see definition in section 17.12).

5. REASONS FOR COLLECTING INFORMATION

In general, we will only collect Personal Information that is reasonably necessary for us to achieve any or a combination of the primary purposes mentioned in section 5.1 and 5.2 below and the secondary purposes mentioned in section 5.3.

5.1 Primary purpose – assess applications & manage accounts

We collect, hold, use and disclose Personal Information for the following primary purposes, that is, to:

- a) Assess and/or process your application for any of our products or services and advise you about its outcome;
- b) Assess and/or process your application for employment with us and advise you about its outcome;
- c) Assess and/or process your application to be engaged as an independent contractor for, or an external services provider to, us and advise you about its outcome;
- d) Assess your guarantor application;
- e) Comply with your instructions from time to time if we establish an account with you, including sending you notices and updating your details;
- f) To source any required insurances;
- g) To assess your hardship application where we may collect sensitive information;
- h) Establish and manage any account we establish including;
- i) Assist you to pay any amount due, payable or unpaid in relation to the product or service we have agreed to provide you;
- j) Collect any amount due or unpaid in relation to the product or service we have agreed to provide you;
- k) Pay your salary, wages or other moneys due or payable in relation to your employment contract and give you notices in connection with your employment with us; and
- l) Pay or receive any amount due or payable in relation to any contract for services we have with you and give you notices in connection with the contract for services.

5.2 Primary purpose – to comply with law

We also collect Personal Information in compliance with our legal or regulatory obligations including those we have under the Anti-Money Laundering and Counter-Terrorism Financing Act 2006, the National Consumer Credit Protection Act 2009, the Corporations Act 2001, the Privacy Act 1988 ("Privacy Act") and various Australian employment, taxation and immigration laws.

Furthermore, we will collect Personal Information if we are required by or under a court or tribunal order to collect that information.

If the collection of Personal Information is required by any other law or court or tribunal order, we will advise you of the relevant law or the details of the court or tribunal order at the time of collecting the information or as soon as practicable after we have collected the information.

5.3 Secondary purposes

We collect, hold, use and disclose your Personal Information for any or a combination of the following secondary purposes:

- a) Tell you about our products or services unless you tell us to stop;

- b) Tell you when your current products with us are ready for renewal or review unless you tell us to stop;
- c) Share it with our brand partners Audi Australia Pty Limited, ŠKODA Pty Limited and Volkswagen Group Australia Pty Limited and where appropriate, other Australian distributors whose vehicles we finance so that they can tell you about their products or services unless you tell us to stop;

- e) Has applied for employment with us, or we have agreed to employ;
- f) Is a referee of the individual mentioned in (e) above;
- g) Has applied for to be engaged, or we have agreed to engage, to provide external services to us or to provide such services to;
- h) Is a referee, current or past employer or professional services provider of the individual mentioned in (g) above; or
- i) Is a visitor to any of our places of business.

7. WHEN WE COLLECT INFORMATION

7.1 General

We will collect Personal Information (from you) in the following circumstances:

- a) When the individual mentioned in section 6.1 (a) has applied for any of our products or services or during the course of that individual holding a product or service we have agreed to provide them;
- b) When managing any account we have established in relation to a product or service we have agreed to provide the individual mentioned in section 6.1 (a) including collecting or attempting to collect any amounts due or payable in relation to any such product or service;
- c) When the business, organisation or agency mentioned in section 6.1 (d) has applied for any of our products or services or during the course of that business, organisation or agency holding a product or service we have agreed to provide them;
- d) When managing any account we have established in relation to a product or service we have agreed to provide the business, organisation or agency mentioned in section 6.1 (d) including collecting or attempting to collect any amounts due or payable in relation to any such product or service;
- e) When any person, business, organisation or agency who is acting on your behalf (such as your accountant, lawyer, financial counsellor, power of attorney or other legal representative) or who you have entered into a contract with or proposing to enter a contract with (such as an insurer) provides your Personal Information to us in relation to a product or service we have agreed or we are proposing to provide you;
- f) When you apply for employment with us or we have agreed to employ you;
- g) When establishing or managing any account we have established if we have agreed to employ you;
- h) When you apply for or we have agreed to enter into a contract for services with you;
- i) When a business, organisation or agency you are acting for or you are a director, officer or employee of, has applied for a contract for services with us or we have agreed to engage that business, organisation or agency under a contract for services;
- j) When establishing or managing any account in relation to the contract for services mentioned in 7.1 (h) and 7.1 (i);
- k) When we are required by or under an Australian law, court or tribunal order or by a regulatory body to collect your Personal Information;
- l) When you visit any of our places of business; and
- m) When we are conducting a product or market research or a customer survey.

7.2 Credit Information

In addition to the circumstances mentioned in section 7.1 (General), we may collect Credit Information from a Credit Reporting Body ("CRB") (as defined in section 17.2) when we are assessing a credit application you have made to us or you have made on behalf of a business, organisation or agency.

Also, we will collect and use Credit Information in our own records including information on your payments, repayments or default.

Furthermore, we will obtain Credit Information from other Credit Providers with whom you have or had a credit account.

Finally, we will collect your Credit Information from publicly available sources including personal insolvency information entered or recorded in the National Personal Insolvency Index (as defined in the Bankruptcy Act).

8. HOW WE COLLECT INFORMATION

8.1 Lawful, Reasonable & Transparent Means

We will only collect Personal Information by lawful, fair and transparent means.

Except in a limited number of cases, we will collect Personal Information directly from you and with your consent.

8.2 You do not have to provide information

You are under no legal or moral obligation to provide Personal Information we ask for and we will not oblige you to provide Personal Information (see section 9).

8.3 Consequences for not providing information we request

If you fail or refuse to provide any Personal Information we ask for, we may not be able to do any or a combination of the things mentioned in section 5.1 (Primary purpose – assess product application and manage accounts) or section 5.2 (Primary purpose – to comply with law).

In some cases if we do not collect, use and/or disclose the Personal Information we ask for we may not only risk providing you an unsuitable product or service, but we may also be in breach of our legal or regulatory obligations.

8.4 Credit reporting – Important Details about Credit Information

We participate in the comprehensive credit reporting system to enable us to make better and informed decisions about providing credit to our customers. When you apply for credit with us, or propose to be a guarantor, we may request a credit report about you from a CRB. Credit reports contain information about your credit history that will help us assess your creditworthiness and your ability to repay credit.

As part of our participation in the comprehensive credit reporting system, we have an obligation to provide repayment history information about you to the CRBs on a monthly basis. This could include financial hardship information if that is applicable for you. If you would like further information about comprehensive credit reporting, repayment history information and/or financial hardship information, please refer to the Office of the Australian Information Commission website at www.oaic.gov.au.

If the information we are collecting includes Credit Information:

- a) We are likely to disclose your information to any or all of the following CRB's as defined in section 17.2 (Credit reporting bodies):
 - (i) Equifax Pty Ltd - www.equifax.com.au
 - (ii) Illion Australia Pty Ltd - www.illion.com.au
 - (iii) Experian Australia Credit Services Pty Ltd - www.experian.com.au

For contact details and information on how credit reporting bodies manage credit information, please see their privacy policies available at the links above.

- b) CRB's may include the information we disclose to them in reports provided to other credit providers as your Credit Worthiness Information (as defined in section 17.3 (Credit worthiness information));
- c) If you fail to meet your payment obligations in relation to a consumer credit contract you enter with us, or you commit a "Serious Credit Infringement" (defined in section 17.12 (Serious credit infringement)), we are entitled to disclose this to the CRB's outlined in Section 8.4 (a);

- d) You can contact the CRB's outlined in Section 8.4 (a) to:
 - (i) Obtain their Credit Information management policy;
 - (ii) Request them not to use your credit reporting information for the purposes of pre-screening of direct marketing by a credit provider; and
 - (iii) Request them not to use or disclose your credit reporting information, if you believe on reasonable grounds that you have been, or you are likely to be, a victim of fraud; and
- e) You can also contact us in relation to your Credit Information in any of the circumstances mentioned in section 16.1 (Reasons for contacting us).

8.5 How we collect information

If reasonable and practicable, we will collect Personal Information or Credit Information directly from you:

- a) Using the online application form;
- b) in limited circumstances, using a paper application form;
- c) Over the telephone or mobile phone;
- d) During a face to face meeting or teleconference;
- e) When you send us a facsimile document;
- f) When you send us an email; or
- g) Via our online websites: www.vwfs.com.au; and www.vwfsfleet.com.au
- h) We also collect information from you electronically when you use our online services. This includes information such as:
 - Location information (if enabled on your device);
 - IP address;
 - Details of the device used to access our digital services (including mobile and tablet);
 - Details of the wi-fi network or mobile network used by your device; and
 - Type of authentication used (for example touch ID or face ID).

We do not link this information to you unless we need to access these details for fraud or security reasons. Please contact us if you would like to find out more about the types of cookies we use and why.

8.6 Using third parties to collect information

In some cases, we may authorise another person, such as a motor vehicle dealership, a recruitment organisation independent third party identification/financial verification services (for the purposes of confirming your identity/verifying your financial position in your loan application process), CRB or background checking service provider (if you have applied for a job, business or contracting opportunity with us) to collect your Personal Information on our behalf.

8.7 Collecting information from another person

With the exception of the circumstances mentioned in section 8.8 (Related organisations), we will only collect your Personal Information from another person with your express or implied consent. Some third parties from whom we may collect Personal Information include:

- a) Your nominated accountant or financial counsellor;
- b) Authorised motor vehicle dealerships;
- c) Your nominated representative such as lawyer, power of attorney, trustee, any person who purports to be acting on your behalf or any person you have notified us as your referee or next of kin;

- d) Professional or business referees you have advised to us;
- e) A CRB (as defined in section 17.2) in some circumstances;
- f) Another credit provider, financier or financial institution; and
- g) Your insurer or broker.

Finally, we may collect Personal Information (other than sensitive) from someone else if it is unreasonable or impracticable to collect the information from you.

8.8 Related organisations

In some cases we may collect your Personal Information from an organisation or person that is related to us if the primary purpose for which that organisation or person collected your information in the first place was or is related to the primary purpose for which we would collect your information.

8.9 Unsolicited information

If we receive your Personal Information which we did not ask for and determine that we are not entitled to collect the information, we will take reasonable steps as soon as practicable to destroy or de-identify the information if it is not contained in a record or document of the Commonwealth government of Australia. If the information is contained in a record or document of the Commonwealth government of Australia we will attempt to return it to you, and failing that, we will return the record to the relevant Commonwealth government agency.

If we determine that we are entitled to collect the Personal Information we did not ask for and you are an existing customer of ours or you are a guarantor or a person acting on behalf of an existing customer of ours, we will advise you about the information and seek your consent to manage the information in accordance with the requirements of this Privacy Policy, unless we have obtained your consent on a previous occasion.

9. ANONYMITY & PSEUDONYMITY

If it is lawful, practicable and reasonable when collecting Personal Information, we will give you the option of not identifying yourself or the option of your use of a pseudonym.

An example would be where we are conducting a customer, product or market survey or research and it is practicable to obtain the information we want for the purposes of that survey or research without the need for you to tell us your names, date or birth or residential address in particular.

10. ACCURACY OF INFORMATION

We will take all reasonable steps in the circumstances to ensure that Personal Information we collect from or about you is accurate, complete and up-to-date.

Accordingly, in some cases, we may ask you for an independent and reliable document or use an electronic data source to verify that the Personal Information you have given us is accurate, complete and up-to-date.

If we identify any discrepancy between information you provided us and information in an independent and reliable document or electronic data source, we will give you an opportunity to correct or reconcile the discrepancy, if it is reasonable or practicable for us to do so, before using the information for the purposes for which we have collected it.

We may terminate a product or service we have agreed to provide you, your employment with us or your business or contracting relationship with us if we find that the Personal Information we relied on to offer you the product, service, job or business or contracting opportunity was not accurate, complete or up-to-date at the time we collected or used it.

11. SENDING INFORMATION OVERSEAS

From time to time, we will send data containing Personal Information to our parent and related companies.

Sometimes, we may send your information to service providers or third parties who store data or operate outside Australia.

Whilst it is not practicable to list every country in which recipients may be located, recipients of such disclosures are likely to include Germany, Singapore, United Kingdom and Sweden.

12. USE OR DISCLOSURE FOR PERMITTED PURPOSES

We will use or disclose Personal Information we hold if:

- a) The use or disclosure of the information is required or authorised by or under an Australian law or a court or tribunal order;
- b) A “permitted general situation” (as defined in the Privacy Act) exists in relation to the use or disclosure of the information by us;
- c) A “permitted health situation” (as defined in the Privacy Act) exists in relation to the use or disclosure of the information by us; or
- d) We reasonably believe that the use or disclosure of the information is reasonably necessary for one or more “enforcement related activities” (as defined in the Privacy Act) conducted by, or on behalf of, an enforcement body.

13. HOW WE PROTECT YOUR INFORMATION

13.1 General

The security of your Personal Information which we hold is important to us and we take all reasonable steps in the circumstances to protect it from unauthorised access, misuse, interference, loss, disclosure or modification.

We keep your Personal Information which we hold in various formats including paper and electronic format.

Some of the ways we secure your Personal Information are:

- a) Imposing confidentiality of Personal Information requirements on our employees and persons or organisation we will disclose your Personal Information to;
- b) Implementation of a document storage policy;
- c) Password and username measures for access to our information technology and business systems;
- d) Verification of customers before disclosing Personal Information;
- e) Restriction of access to our buildings; and
- f) Electronic security systems such as firewalls and data encryption on our websites.

We can store Personal Information physically or electronically with third party data storage providers. Where we do this, we use contractual arrangements to ensure those providers take appropriate measures to protect that information and restrict the uses to which they can put that information.

13.2 Destroying and de-identifying of information

In general, we will destroy your Personal Information or any document or record containing Personal Information we no longer need the information or if we are not required by or under an Australian law to keep the information or the document or record beyond a required period.

If it is not practicable to destroy the information or the document or record containing the Personal Information, we will put the document “beyond use” (as defined in the Credit Reporting Code).

In some circumstances, we will “de-identify” Personal Information instead of destroying it including circumstances we are required by or under an Australian law to keep the information or the document or record.

14. REQUESTING ACCESS TO YOUR INFORMATION

14.1 General

You can request access to your Personal Information by contacting us (see section 16.1 (Reasons for contacting us) and section 16.2 (Our contact details)).

Also, you may use a third party (access-seeker) to make a request to us for access to your Personal Information.

14.2 Adequate verification before giving access

In whatever manner and whenever you contact us, we will verify your identity or that of any person you have authorised to be given access to your Personal Information before we agree to give access.

Also, if you authorise an access-seeker to request access to your Personal Information you must do so in writing before we can give them access.

We reserve the right to change our identity verification requirements from time to time without notice.

14.3 Period for giving access to Personal Information

We will endeavour to respond to your request for access to your Personal Information within a reasonable period of time after the date we have verified your identity in accordance with section 14.2 (Adequate verification etc).

If for any reason we cannot or we refuse to give access to your Personal Information within the above timeframe, we will give you a written notice that sets out the reason for the refusal and/or the reasons we are unable to provide access within the above timeframe. If necessary, we may request you to agree to an extension of time to give access.

Also, in any of the above circumstances, we will advise you of how you can make a complaint about our refusal to give access or our failure to give access within a reasonable time.

14.4 Period for giving access to Credit Information

For a request to access your Credit Information, we will endeavour to provide access to you within 30 days of receiving your request, unless unusual circumstances apply. In those circumstances, we will notify you with our reasons (if reasonable for us to do so) and advise you of your right to refer our refusal or failure to provide access within the timeframe to the Australian Financial Complaints Authority (see section 16.5 (Referral to EDR)) and/or to the Privacy Commissioner (see section 16.6 (Referral to Privacy Commissioner)).

14.5 If unreasonable to give access in a particular form

Your request for access may specify the form or manner you wish your information to be provided to you including whether you wish the information to be given to you over the telephone or in writing and by regular post, email or facsimile.

If reasonable or practicable, we will give you access in the form or manner you have specified.

If it is not reasonable or practicable to give you access in the form or manner you have requested, we will take steps that we consider are reasonable in the circumstances to give access in a way that meets both your and our needs, including, giving access through a mutually agreed intermediary.

14.6 Fees and charges

In general, we will not charge you a fee for making a request for access to your Personal Information.

Also, we will not charge you any fee for providing you a copy of this policy in a form you have requested if it is reasonable for us to provide the information in that form.

We may charge a fee for retrieving and preparing the information and/or giving it to you in the manner you have requested it to be provided to you. However, any such fee will not be excessive in the circumstances and will not apply to the making of the request.

We may ask you to pay any charge or fee before we can progress your request.

14.7 When we may refuse access

We will refuse you access to your Personal Information if:

- a) We reasonably believe that giving you access would pose a serious threat to the life, health or safety of any individual, or to public health or public safety;
- b) Giving access would have an unreasonable impact on the privacy of other individuals;
- c) Your request is frivolous or vexatious;
- d) Your request relates to existing or anticipated legal proceedings between you and us, and you would not be able to gain access through a discovery process in those proceedings;
- e) Giving access would reveal our intentions in relation to negotiations with you in such a way as to prejudice those negotiations;
- f) Giving access would be unlawful;
- g) Denying access is required or authorised by or under an Australian law or a court or tribunal order;
- h) Both of the following apply:
 - (i) We have reason to suspect that unlawful activity, or misconduct of a serious nature, that relates to our functions or activities has been, is being or may be engaged in; and
 - (ii) Giving access would be likely to prejudice our taking of appropriate action in relation to the matter;
- i) Giving access would be likely to prejudice one or more enforcement related activities (as defined in the Privacy Act) conducted by, or on behalf of, a law enforcement body; or
- j) Giving access would reveal evaluative information we have generated in connection with a commercially sensitive decision-making process.

We may refuse to give access to your Credit Information if:

- a) Giving access would be unlawful; or
- b) Denying access is required or authorised by or under an Australian law or a court/tribunal order; or
- c) Giving access would be likely to prejudice one or more enforcement related activities conducted by, or on behalf of, an enforcement body.

15. REQUESTING CORRECTION OF INFORMATION

15.1 Correcting inaccurate information yourself

If we are satisfied on reasonable grounds that the Personal Information we hold about you is inaccurate, out-of-date, incomplete, irrelevant or misleading, we will take appropriate steps to correct the information (see generally, section 10: (Accuracy of information)).

If we correct your Personal Information we will take appropriate steps within 7 days of the correction, to notify you and any other person, organisation. If the information corrected is Credit Information, any "affected information recipient" (as defined in the Privacy Act) or "CRB" to which we had provided the pre-corrected information, that your information has been corrected.

15.2 Asking us to correct your information

You too can ask us to correct the Personal Information we hold about you if you consider the information is not accurate, up-to-date, complete, relevant or it is misleading or deceptive.

Also, you may request us to take reasonable, practicable or lawful steps to notify any other organisation to which we provided your Personal Information on a previous occasion, that we have corrected your information.

15.3 Timeframe for correcting Personal Information

If your request relates to Personal Information that is not Credit Information, we will respond to the requests within a reasonable period of time of receiving it.

15.4 Timeframe for correcting Credit Information

If the request relates to your Credit Information, we will respond to the request within 30 days from the date you make the request.

If we are not able to meet the above timeframe we will seek your written consent for an extension of time to respond to your request.

15.5 No fees for requests

We will not charge you any fees for making a request to us to correct your information.

15.6 If we refuse to correct information

If we refuse to correct your Personal Information, we will give you a written notice that sets out:

- a) The reasons for the refusal except to the extent that it would be unreasonable to do so;
- b) Your rights to make a complaint about our decision including referring it to the Australian Financial Complaints Authority or to the Privacy Commissioner; and
- c) Any other matter prescribed by regulations introduced under the Privacy Act to be mentioned in the written notice.

15.7 Request to associate statement

If we refuse to correct your Personal Information, you may request us to associate a statement with the Personal Information that you consider is inaccurate, out-of-date, incomplete, irrelevant or misleading.

Within a reasonable period of time after receiving your request, we will take any step that is reasonable, practicable and lawful in the circumstances to associate the statement in such a way that will make the statement apparent to users of the information.

We will not charge any fee for a request to associate a statement as described above.

16. CONTACTING US

16.1 Reasons for contacting us

Amongst other things, you may contact us if you:

16.3 Acknowledging requests and complaints

We will endeavour to acknowledge your request or complaint within 7 days after we have received it. Depending on the circumstances, we may acknowledge your request or complaint by phone, email, regular post or facsimile.

A complaint in relation to Credit Information will be acknowledged by email, regular post or facsimile.

16.4 Request & Complaint Process

We will take reasonable steps to investigate the subject matter of your request or complaint. Such steps may include liaising with our external representatives who are familiar with the subject matter of the request.

If the request or complaint concerns Credit Information, we may consult with other external organisations or agencies in particular a relevant CRB (as defined in section 17.2 (Credit reporting body)), other credit providers and “affected information recipients” (as defined in the Privacy Act). Whether such consultation is necessary will depend upon whether we provided your information to those external organisations or agencies or whether we obtained your information from them.

Also, in some cases we may seek advice from our own legal or other professional advisors in relation to your request or complaint.

We will give you reasonable opportunity to present your case.

Any information we discover during the investigation stage will be analysed and evaluated before a decision is reached on the merits of your request or complaint.

You will be advised about our decision within the timeframes specified in this Policy if applicable to your request or complaint or within the timeframe specified in the Privacy Act or Credit Reporting Code.

If our decision is in writing, it will contain the reasons for the decision and information on your right to refer our decision to the Australian Financial Complaints Authority (see section 16.5 (Referral to EDR)) or to the Privacy Commissioner (see section 16.6 (Referral to Privacy Commissioner)) if you are not satisfied with the decision.

16.5 Referral to EDR

If you are not satisfied with our response to your request or complaint, you may refer it to the Australian Financial Complaints Authority, the external dispute resolution (EDR) scheme of which we are a member.

16.7 Employee requests & complaints

Employees may make requests directly to the Human Resources team for access to their Personal Information.

Employees may also request the Human Resources team to correct their Personal Information if they consider the information we hold on them is not accurate, up-to-date, complete, or relevant or if they consider the information is misleading.

Within a reasonable time after we have corrected an employee’s Personal Information, we will advise any person, organisation or agency we provided the pre-corrected information to that the information has been corrected.

Alternatively, employees may log into their personal accounts in the pay roll system to correct their own Personal Information if they wish to do so.

Employees also have the right to make a complaint if they consider we have not handled their Personal Information appropriately including in accordance with this Policy or in accordance with the Australian Privacy Principles or the Privacy Act.

Employees may make privacy complaints directly to the Operational Risk and Compliance Manager or through our external whistle blower service provider whose website address is www.whistleblowing.com.au. Because of the inherent nature of privacy complaints, employees are advised that it may not be practicable for the Operational Risk and Compliance Manager or external whistle blower service providers to guarantee employees anonymity during the investigation of privacy complaints.
